Community Links - World Book Day

What a lovely gift for our school... thank you so much Morrison's!

Our 'no dressing up' day reflects our autism friendly approach to school events as well as taking into consideration cost of living crisis by helping alleviate the pressure of dressing up. We celebrate in a variety of other ways as show cased below.

Character Education

World Book Day - Anthony Browne

Across the school each year group chose a story from the author Anthony Browne .

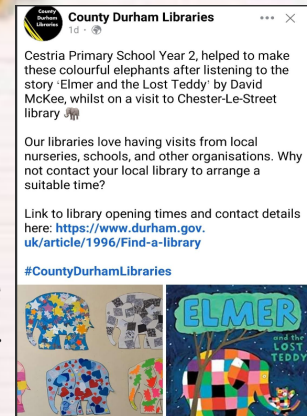

Year 2 have been finding out about gorillas this week and very much enjoyed reading the story 'Gorilla' . Hannah from the story wanted more than anything to meet one. We made our own to bring home.

World Book Day

The children enjoy regular visits to the local library for Storytime, craft and to also choose and borrow fabulous books to read back at school.

Continuous Provision Time

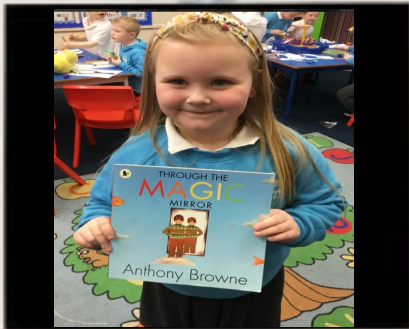

Throughout the school the children regularly practise telling the 'Time' and make use of the analogue and digital clocks in the classroom.

Character Education

World Book Day - Anthony Browne

We are having a fabulous morning celebrating World Book Day! The children have read and discussed Bear Hunt by Anthony Browne. Little Stars have used their imagination to think about what they would draw if they had a magic pencil.

World Book Day - Anthony Browne

Year 1

We have enjoyed reading the story 'Through the Magic Mirror' by Anthony Browne. We created our own magic mirrors and created some pictures to show where the mirrors would take us.

Character Education

World Book Day - Anthony Browne

Our author for World Book Day is Anthony Browne, we are looking at his stories across the school. Year 3 chose 'The Tunnel'.

Character Education

World Book Day - Anthony Browne

This morning Year 4 have enjoyed sharing 'The Tunnel' by Anthony Browne we were captivated by the illustrations and were able to make lots of links to other texts, we then made mini books in which we edited parts of the text.

We have had a wonderful morning at the library. We listened to a story and made our very own elf just like the story!

We also popped to Morrisons after to buy some flowers for our outdoor area.
We will plant them together next week.

Personal, Social, Health & Economic Education.

Physical Education

Today we used the traditional tale,
The Three Billy Goats Gruff as a stimulus to develop balance, agility and coordination.

Times Table Rock Stars

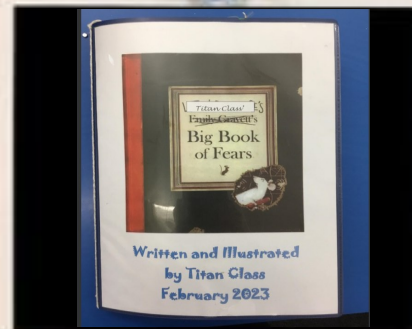

We had a TTRS tournament over half term and Titan triumphed over Apollo! Well done to everyone who took part and special congratulations to Isaac, Emma and Harriet who were crowned as most valuable players in our team. Keep up the good work everyone and watch out for the next tournament.

Character Education

Mental Health & Wellbeing

The children have been talking about early childhood worries that they might have had and have begun to write a re-count based on one.

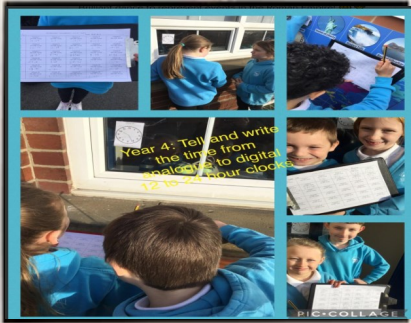

Mental Health and Wellbeing

Mental Health & Wellbeing

Wow fantastic start to the day - we showed Mrs Gowland our class scrapbook and she gave us all a headteacher's gold sticker!

Book Based Assembly

As February was LGBTQ+ month, for today's assembly we had a read of the book 'My Shadow is Pink' by Scott Stuart. We really enjoyed the book, and decided on some morals from the story which were...

- You can like and love whatever you want to
- You should be who you are, no matter what others think.

Spiritual, Moral , Social & Cultural

Zones of Regulation

I'm so impressed with Little Moons they have been fantastic using their Zones of Regulation station .This encourages the children to express their feelings on a morning and do self registration.

Personal, Social, Health & Economic Education.

Cross Country

Our fabulous children who represented school at cross country this morning. A special well done to xxx for coming 3rd.
